

CHE Professor appointed to the Membrane Advisory Board for Calera Corporation

Professor Glenn Lipscomb was appointed to the Membrane Advisory Board for Calera Corporation. Calera, a clean energy startup located in Los Gatos California, has developed a pioneering technology, Mineralization via Aqueous Precipitation (MAP), for conversion of CO₂ to a calcium carbonate cementitious material that may be used In the building industry.

Professor Glenn Lipscomb

UT College of Engineering Home: www.eng.utoledo.edu.