The Technical Society of Toledo (TST) is the umbrella organization of the many professional engineering, technical and professional societies that have local chapters serving the technical professionals in the Toledo area. TST is dedicated to serving its member organizations, corporations, educational institutions, engineering support services and individuals. Numerous benefits of membership include opportunities to promote your company, network with other members and stay in-the-know on the latest news that effecting the technical community, as well as volunteer for one of our many technical events and educational activities. The investment you make by joining will definitely be money well spent.

Such an umbrella organization facilitates cooperative efforts by the Toledo area scientific and engineering men and women. Coordinated action by the technical community is helpful to identify and achieve loftier education and, societal goals.

Over 1,200 individuals in our member societies take advantage of the benefits TST has to offer through its monthly luncheons, publications, news updates, and more!

By becoming a member, you will be joining one of the oldest and strongest technical communities in Ohio and helping to make it even stronger!

TST maintains an office at the University of Toledo, Nitschke Hall Room 5039. Hours are Tuesdays & Thursdays-10:30-1:30p-September through May or by appointment. TST members have access to its business services through our paid part-time secretary.

What is Technical Society of Toledo?

TST was formed in 1968 by the merger of the Toledo Area Technical and Scientific Educational Foundation (TATSEF), Engineering Society of Toledo (EST) and the Toledo Technical Council (TTC). TST membership levels are individuals, corporate, organizations and professional societies. TST reaches and serves some 3000 Toledo-area technical people.

Education: TST funds scholarships at The University of Toledo, Owens Community College, and Bowling Green State University presented annually during the local National Engineers' Week celebration.

Social: TST sponsors monthly luncheon meeting programs at the Toledo Club from September through May. Programs focus on various technical issues affecting the community. Spouses and guests are always welcome.

Identity: TST is a leader in educating the community on the many technical issues important to the NW Ohio area including contributions made by scientists, technicians and engineers in government, industry, medicine, law, journalism and education.

Supportive Role: TST co-sponsors the Toledo area celebration of National Engineers Week with the Toledo Society of Professional Engineers and the University of Toledo's College of Engineering.
