KELLY SCHULTZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

DESCRIPTION
Kelly Schultz began his career as a Union Pipefitter and eventually became an integral part of the project management team at RMF Nooter. Kelly embodied the type of employee that RMF Nooter strives to retain. He had a unique way of serving the customers’ needs while keeping RMF Nooter’s best interests in mind and treating craftsmen with respect. With his positive attitude and bright smile, Kelly was an expert in the field of industrial construction as well as a beloved member of the RMF Nooter family. The Kelly Schultz Memorial Scholarship has been established to honor Kelly, who lost his fight to cancer in 2014 at the age of 42.

Headquartered in Toledo, Ohio, RMF Nooter, is a mechanical and electrical industrial contractor serving the Agribusiness, Automotive, Chemical, Food & Beverage, Metals, Mining, Utilities and Refining markets within Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan. Employing local managers, administrators, quality managers, welding engineers and inspectors, project managers, and local union boilermakers, pipefitters, millwrights, electricians, operating engineers, iron workers, carpenters and laborers, the company operates an additional facility in Lima, Ohio. RMF Nooter, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Nooter Construction Company, which is privately held by CIC Group, Inc. located in St. Louis, MO.

RICHARD LESTER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Richard Lester began his career as a Union Boilermaker and eventually served as President and Owner of the company now known as RMF Nooter. Richard was an integral part of negotiations with unions and customers, but his ability to lead and inspire extended past the walls of RMF Nooter. He served on various boards and committees, and acted as President of the Mechanical Contractors Association. He was a father to three daughters who have also contributed greatly to RMF Nooter, illustrating that women can play a key role in the construction industry. The Richard Lester Scholarship has been established to acknowledge the importance of women and minorities in construction and to honor a man who embraced change and progress to achieve greatness.
